

CONFERENCE ABSTRACT

Autism vs language delay (which is first) the dilemma in daily practice

Turki Homod Albatti*

King Saud University, Collage of Medicine, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia

1st International Growth and Development
Conference (IGDC 2017)

March 16-18, 2017

Dubai, United Arab Emirates

*Corresponding Author,
Email: dralbatti@gmail.com

Abstract

The overlap between ASD (Autism) and language delay is very complicated especially in younger kids Here in this presentation I will give clinical tips help health care team how to make clear differentiation between this two topics using up dated subjective and objective tools like (SCQ, M-CHAT, ADOS-2) So, the participant will use this clinical value instrument in their daily practice to screen for Autism and separate this cases from speech delay with their clinical judgment.